2. The route beyond Shimoga will be published hereafter. It will probably include Tarikere, Chikmagalur, Belur, Arsikere, Hassan, Channarayapatna, Kunigal and Nelamangala.

3. His Highness the Maharaja will be accompanied by his Dewan and Private Secretary and by the Secretary, General and Revenue Departments, and by Dr. Benson, Civil Surgeon, Mysore.

4. District Officers will meet His Highness the Maharaja on the border of their respective Districts, and will accompany the camp through the District.

5. Separate instructions will be issued to each Deputy Commissioner under which arrangements will be made for the provision at each halting place of suitable accommodation. At each of the more important places en route, His Highness the Maharaja will hold a Durbar, at which the principal residents, European and Native, official and non-official, will be presented to His Highness. The several District Officers will now prepare lists of such gentlemen who may be so presented.

6. His Highness confidently relies upon Deputy Commissioners taking the greatest care that as little inconvenience and trouble as possible is occasioned to the people during the tour. This is specially desirable in the matter of supplies. Most of the grain and supplies required for consumption in camp will be obtained at large markets, and carried with the camp for sale in a Camp Bazar, and for such supplies as must be looked for on the spot, and for the collection of which it is indispensable to obtain the aid of Government officials, ample notice will be given. All officials are strictly prohibited from supplying, as those accompanying His Highness the Maharaja are from asking for, any supplies for which the Superintendent of the Camp Bazar has not given notice, and the Dewan trusts that the Deputy Commissioners and all subordinate to them will unite in exerting themselves to ensure that no trouble is given to the people on the pretext of collecting supplies for His Highness or for any one in camp.

The 6th November 1885.
